

Saint Anthony of Padua Parish

With the Eucharist at the centre, we are a community desiring to be saints, sent out to love like Jesus and proclaim Him in every circumstance.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 3, 2019

Join the Proclaim Movement

An excerpt from Archbishop Miller's welcome letter to the attendees of last week's Upper Room Conference on October 26, 2019:

"The Proclaim Movement is an initiative of the Archdiocese of Vancouver by which we are responding to Pope Francis' pressing appeal to observe an Extraordinary Missionary Month (October). The theme "Baptized and Sent" emphasizes the universal call to mission which each of you is invited to embrace with gratitude and generosity. The Proclaim Movement will promote the missionary dimension of the home and encourage disciples to recognize evangelizing moments in their day-to-day lives. I have often prayed for an unleashing of apostolic fire to fill the homes of the faith and kindle that fire, so that it becomes a roaring blaze.

During this time when the Church is being purified on many fronts, it might seem prudent to shy away from audacious plans, but this is not the time for timidity. I encourage you to not be afraid to break out of comfortable and routine modes of living to take up the challenge of making Christ known by your witness of life and word.

The Holy Spirit is the principle agent of evangelization and prayer is the soul of the apostolate. It is my hope that your generous participation in the Proclaim Movement will help to deepen your life of prayer and encounter within the Eucharist and Reconciliation.

Pope Francis hopes that Extraordinary Missionary Month will be a catalytic event that gives way to a spiritual impulse capable of transforming everything. In the Archdiocese of Vancouver, we call that impulse the Proclaim Movement. Together, we are responding to the Pope's vision and I, as Archbishop, am grateful for your solidarity. May we be filled with zeal and courage as we go forward with faith."
